Three Houma men were arrested in connection with a series of forgeries that occurred in late March 2011, Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said.

A complaint was filed with TPSO by a Houma resident in late March regarding his vehicle being burglarized in Lafourche parish while it was parked at a friend's house during a party. The victim's checkbook was stolen during the burglary and his personal checks written at several businesses in Terrebonne parish.

TPSO detectives investigated the matter and identified three suspects are being responsible for using the victim's checks.

Jace Duplantis, 18, of 206 Melody Drive was arrested for three counts of forgery; Taylor Pitre, 17, of 204 Pitre Street was arrested for four counts of forgery; Dylan Soudelier, 18, was arrested for two counts of forgery.

The investigation revealed that the three suspects wrote the victim's checks at several businesses in Terrebonne parish to pay for vehicle fuel and food at local restaurants.

All three subjects were jailed at the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex and later released on bond.
