November 7, 2011

On November 6, 2011, Sunday morning at approximately 2:15 a.m. Terrebonne Parish deputies responded to a call of a female who said that she was being followed on Savanne Rd. by her estranged boyfriend.

Deputies arrived at the convenient store at the intersection of Savanne Rd. and La. Highway 311 where contact was made with the 22 year old female victim. The suspect was also at this location. She informed deputies that she was leaving a friend's residence in the 8000 block of Park Ave. when her estranged boyfriend, Benjamin Bradley, physically picked her up and put her into his vehicle against her will. She said that, while driving, Bradley repeatedly struck her in the face and chest area with the back of his hand. The victim suffered with a busted lip and had bruise marks to her face.

Bradley drove the victim to her mother's residence in the 300 block of Cypress Dr. where he released her. The victim then entered a vehicle with her male acquaintance and they left the residence. Bradley followed them from the residence down Savanne Rd. where he attempted to run them off of the road with his vehicle. Bradley pulled his vehicle in front of their vehicle and forced them to stop. He approached their vehicle and began banging on the window threatening to beat her if she got out of the vehicle. The two managed to get away from Bradley and drove to the convenient store at the intersection of Savanne Rd. and La. Highway 311 Houma where they met a Terrebonne Parish deputy.

Benjamin Gerald Bradley, age-38, 3124 Seneca St. Baton Rouge, La. was arrested for simple kidnapping, simple battery, simple assault and reckless driving. Bradley was also arrested for parole violation. Bradley remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail with no bond.
