News Release

January 28, 2010

The Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office detectives arrested three adults and two juveniles in reference to numerous vehicle burglaries in the Broadmoor Subdivision. These burglaries occurred over two weekends in November (11-21-10 and 11-27-10) and included items such as GPS systems, money, CDs and cameras.

Quincy Ward III (18 years of age) was arrested for 11 counts of simple burglary and two counts of Contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile; Jessie LeCompte (18 years of age) was arrested for 8 counts of simple burglary and 2 counts of contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile; Randall Autin (17 years of age) was arrested for 8 counts of simple burglary; and two 16 year old males were arrested for 12 counts of simple burglary.

All vehicles were left unlocked over night. Some of the items that were stolen have been recovered and were returned to the owners. These arrests conclude an approximately two month investigation by the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office detectives.

Anyone having additional information regarding this investigation is asked to call the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office detective bureau, (985) 876-2500.
