News Release

December 6, 2011

On December 3, 2011, Saturday morning at approximately 9:35 a.m. a Terrebonne Parish deputy responded to the Texaco Gas Station, 831 La. 182 East, Houma in reference to a stolen truck.

The victim informed the deputy that he arrived at the Texaco Gas Station and parked in front of the gas pumps. He stated that he left his vehicle engine running since he was only going to be in the store for a brief moment. The victim stated that as he was going into the store he observed a white female with blond hair standing in front of the store.

The victim stated that while inside of the store he heard the sound of his truck's engine (rev-up) get louder. He stated that as he exited the store he saw the same white female with blond hair drive off in his 2002 Tan in color Chevrolet Silverado.

Shortly afterwards a deputy spotted this vehicle and made a traffic stop at the intersection of Margaret St. and Daspit St. The suspect was taken into custody without incident; she was identified as Christy Ann Smith, age-35, of 8200 Buttercup St. Baton Rouge, La. The victim's truck was recovered and returned to him.

Smith was arrested for vehicle theft and driving without a driver's license. She remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail on a $50,000.00.
