News Release

October 29, 2010

On 10-29-10, Thursday, Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office Detectives arrested Cody Bourg (23 years of age) from 122 Garth Dr. for one count of Second Degree Murder.

On 10-19-10, Tuesday, the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office responded to 122 Garth Dr. in reference to a 1 year old child not breathing. The child, Julian Bourg, was treated by Grand Caillou Fire Department and Acadian Ambulance Service who performed CPR until reaching LCMC. Julian was subsequently transferred to Ochsner Medical Center where he was placed in Pediatric Intensive Care Unit until he was pronounced dead on 10-21-10.

Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office Detectives investigated the incident further after receiving information from medical personnel involved in his treatment that Julian suffered from Asphyxiation. Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office Detectives discovered that Julian's Father, Cody Bourg, (23 years of age) allegedly suffocated Julian due to Julian crying. Julian was in the sole care of Cody at the time of the incident.

On 10-29-10, Thursday, Cody Bourg was arrested for one count of Second Degree Murder and booked at the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex where he is incarcerated in lieu of a $500,000.
