A Houma woman was arrested Wednesday night for stabbing another female with a screwdriver, Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said.

Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office received a 911 call Wednesday night at approximately 7:15 p.m. from a witness who observed a female, identified as Allyson Dean, 18, stab another female in the chest with a screwdriver.

Upon the arrival of deputies and detectives, it was learned that Dean attacked the victim in the parking lot of 3591 Friendswood Drive, an apartment complex in east Houma where they both resided. Dean was recently evicted from her apartment and when she learned about the eviction began an argument with the victim who was the complex's manager.

The victim was treated at a local hospital and released hours later. Her injuries proved to be superficial.

Dean was booked and jailed at the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex. She has no known previous criminal history.
