News Release

November 8, 2011

On November 7, 2011, Terrebonne Parish detectives arrested George Anthony Trosclair Jr., age-42, 9267 Golden Gate Court Houma for felony theft over $6500. Trosclair was employed as a convenient store manager at a local Shell store.

The owner of the Prospect Shell Station filed a report with the Sheriff's Office regarding an employee stealing money from the cash register. The owner advised that Trosclair was stealing money from the cash register while at work. After completing a sale Trosclair would show that the sale as a void or an error and then steal the cash. Between the months of April and June of 2011 is when these transactions occurred.

On November 7, 2011, detectives made contact with Trosclair at his residence and transported him to the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office for questioning. Trosclair admitted to the theft and stated that he stole the money in order to support his drug habit.

Trosclair was booked into the Terrebonne Parish Jail where he remains on a $5,000.00 bond; his arraignment date is set for December 19, 2011.
