A Houma man was arrested for mistreatment of a mentally challenged live-in family member, Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said.

TPSO detectives arrested Billy Peter Holliday, 56, of 127 Holiday Drive for domestic abuse battery and cruelty to the infirmed, after investigating a complaint filed by Adult Protective Services.

Holliday reportedly physically abused his live-in girlfriend and her mentally challenged sister, over several weeks while they lived together in Houma. Holliday's girlfriend, 55 and her sister, 52 both suffered bruises on various parts of their bodies, but neither required hospitalization.

Holliday was questioned by detectives about the abuse. Holliday admitted to physically abusing both victims on several occasions.

He was booked and jailed at the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex.
