News Release

Jan. 3, 2011

Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois says that on January 1, 2011, Saturday at approximately 2:30 a.m. a Terrebonne Parish deputy was patrolling the 900 block of La. Highway 182 when a gold colored Nissan Altima was observed driving on the shoulder of the highway.

The deputy turned around and got behind this vehicle when the driver of this vehicle began swerving across the center line. The deputy attempted to conduct a traffic stop and the driver sped away in an attempt to evade the deputy. The deputy then called for other deputies to assist in getting this vehicle stopped. After traveling approximately one mile the driver pulled over just north of Coteau Rd.

The deputy came into contact with the driver who was the sole occupant of this vehicle. He was identified as Jose Armando Ulloa, age- 40 of Honduras. There was an odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from this person and he could not stand up without using his vehicle in order to balance himself.

Ulloa was arrested for improper lane usage, no license plate, flight from an officer, DWI 2nd offense, driving under suspension and operating a vehicle without lawful presence in the United States. Ulloa was also arrested on a Houma City Court warrant for failure to appear in court for a DWI that he was arrested for in April of 2008.

Ulloa was booked into the Terrebonne Parish Jail on the aforementioned charges. He remains in jail on a $1,000.00 bond.
