News Release

January 27, 2011

Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois says that on January 26, 2011, Wednesday evening, Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office deputies and detectives got involved in a vehicle pursuit with a burglary suspect that resulted in the arrest of Joshua Faye.

At approximately 2:30 p.m. detectives were patrolling different areas of Houma searching for Faye who was driving a blue in color four door Mercury Marquis. A sheriff's deputy observed Faye driving this vehicle on the Houma Twin Span (La. 24) headed towards East Houma. After crossing the Twin Span Faye made a right turn on to Grand Caillou Rd. and pulled over to the shoulder of the highway. Then, as the deputy was attempting to exit his vehicle Faye drove off and the pursuit began. The deputy followed Faye and he made a left turn on Morris St. Faye then exits his vehicle and fled on foot and deputies and detectives chased him on foot. After a brief chase deputies captured Faye. La. State Police and the Houma Police Department assisted in this pursuit.

Faye was transported to the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office where detectives questioned him. After the conclusion of this investigation Joshua William Faye, age-22, 313 Myrtle St. Houma, was arrested for two counts of simple burglary, resisting by flight, driving under suspension, failure to register as a sex offender and probation violation. Faye is accused of burglary in reference to a business burglary that occurred on American Boulevard in the Ashland North Subdivision. Faye was on probation for indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Faye was transported to the Terrebonne Parish Jail where he was booked and jailed on the aforementioned charges. Faye remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail without bond.
