News Release

September 30, 2010

A Houma man was arrested Wednesday afternoon in connection with a burglary in Ashland North subdivision, Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said.

Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's office detectives arrested Joshua Swan, 17 of 213 Blair Drive for his role in a burglary that was reported to TPSO on 09-18-10. According to the victims, an adult female drove to a residence in Ashland North subdivision to bring lunch to her husband. While she was inside of the residence meeting with her husband, her teenage daughter remained in the driveway in their vehicle. The teenager reported that three black males hurriedly approached their vehicle, and one of the subjects opened the driver's side door and removed her mother's purse. Witnesses in the area, as well as identification made by the teenager, led detectives to obtain an arrest warrant for Swan for one count of simple burglary. Swan was arrested on 09-29-10 and remains in the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex on a $25,000 bond.

The other two suspects are unknown at this time. The investigation continues. If anyone has any additional information, please contact TPSO at 985-876-2500.
