News Release

January 27, 2012

On January 25, 2012, Wednesday morning Terrebonne Parish detectives arrested Kaz James Boudreaux for unauthorized use of a credit card and identity theft. The victim's credit was stolen and a few days passed before the owner noticed that the credit card was missing.

Boudreaux was identified on surveillance video at Wal-Mart and Best Buy using a stolen credit card to make purchases. Boudreaux made twenty-one unauthorized charges at thirteen different locations in the Houma area between December 18 and December 20 of 2011. The total amount charged on the credit card was over $1900.

Boudreaux remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail on a $1,000,000.00 bond. At this time Boudreaux is also incarcerated for multiple counts of simple burglary and parole violation. Boudreaux's arraignment date is set for March 13, 2012.

Anyone with information concerning this investigation is asked to call the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office, (985)8762500.
