News Release

June 16, 2011

On June 11, 2011, Saturday morning at approximately 5:10 a.m. Keith Ross was arrested by the Houma Police Department for disturbing the peace by cursing, simple assault, entering and remaining after being for bidden and resisting police by violence.

Ross was in the booking area of the Terrebonne Parish Jail waiting to be booked into the system. During this process the correctional officers informed Ross that he could make his phone call. While escorting Ross to the location of the telephone he became upset and began to curse at them. Ross was asked to calm down and make his phone call. After Ross refused to cooperate he was informed that he would not be allowed to make his phone call. Two deputies then escorted Ross to the holding cell and after the handcuffs were removed he kicked one of the deputies in the legs and attempted to bite the second deputy. Neither deputy was seriously injured.

Keith Ross, age-49, 225 Brooklyn St. Houma remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail on a $60,000.00 bond.
