News Release

February 11, 2011

Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois says that after several weeks of investigating a business burglary on February 10, 2011, Thursday, morning Terrebonne Parish detectives made an arrest. Detectives arrested Kevin Daniel Hebert for simple burglary.

During the month of December 2010 the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office received complaints of the business located at #1 Dean Court Houma had been burglarized. This is an abandoned building which is formally the business of Delta Safety and Supply. Although there the building was unoccupied there was copper inside of this building.

For the past several weeks detectives have picked up and questioned several witnesses regarding this burglary before developing a suspect. Hebert was brought in to the Sheriff's Office and questioned by detectives.

Detectives arrested Kevin Daniel Hebert, age 28, 115 Coteau Juanita St. Houma, for simple burglary. Hebert was transported to the Terrebonne Parish Jail where he was booked and jailed. Hebert remains in jail on a $5000.00 bond; his arraignment date is set for March 24, 2011.

Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office detectives are still currently investigating thefts of copper and business burglaries in which copper was stolen. Anyone with information is asked to call the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office, (985) 876-2500. Also, anyone with information is urged to call the crime stoppers tip line and may be eligible for a reward.
