October 20, 2011

Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said that on October 17, 2011, Monday Terrebonne Parish detectives began an investigation in reference to allegations of sexual abuse.

Detectives interviewed two adult men who were juvenile victims of sexual abuse at the time of these incidents. The victims provided several detailed accounts of the different times that these sexual encounters occurred. The victims reported that the encounters began in the year of 2002 and continued until sometimes in 2006. The suspect, Leondus Leblanc, was a family acquaintance of the victims.

On October 19, 2011, Wednesday evening T.P.S.O detectives located Leblanc at his residence, 213 Coachman Dr. and transported him to the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office where detectives questioned him.

Detectives arrested Leondus Ashley Leblanc, age-29, 213 Coachman Dr. Houma, for felony carnal knowledge, oral sexual battery, sexual battery and two counts of indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Leblanc remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail on a $100,000.00 bond. Due to the nature of these sexual acts there will be no further information released at this time.
