News Release

December 5, 2011

On December 3, 2011, at 2:10 a.m. Terrebonne Parish deputies responded to the New Horizons Lounge, 713 La. Highway 182 East, Houma in reference to a disturbance.

Deputies arrived at this location and learned that there was a fight at the lounge whereas someone was struck over the head with a pool stick. The victim is identified as a 30 year old white male who is a resident of Houma. After the victim was struck over the head with a pool stick the suspects took the victim's wallet that allegedly contained about $800 in cash, a gold watch and his cell phone. The suspects left the area prior to the deputies' arrival. Acadian Ambulance transported the victim from the scene to Leonard Chabert Medical Center where he was treated for his head injuries. Deputies obtained information on the two Hispanic male suspects.

The investigation led the deputies to the Agnes St. Trailer Court where the two suspects were spotted. When deputies arrived at this location the suspect fled the area and a pursuit began. Deputies were able to take the suspects in custody after a brief chase.

Juan Marquez, age-24, 1901 East Tunnel Boulevard Houma was arrested for armed robbery and aggravated battery. Juan Tolentino-Solis, age-35, 152 Agnes St. Lot #10 Houma was arrested for simple battery and armed robbery. Tolentino-Solis was in possession of powder cocaine and $100 in cash; therefore, he was also charged with possession with the intent to distribute cocaine and proceeds from drug offense.

Both Marquez and Tolentino-Solis remains in the Terrebonne Parish Jail on a $100,000.00 bond; their arraignment date is set for January 17, 2012.
