News Release

September 19, 2011

Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said that on September 18, 2011, Sunday evening at approximately 7:50 p.m. Terrebonne Parish deputies responded to the 700 block of Main St. Houma, in reference to theft of a television. The victim's stole his mother's 49 " LCD television and refused to give it back.

The suspect Roy Clark Jr. stole his mother's television and told her that he would give her television back to her if she gave him her prescription pain medication. When deputies made contact with Clark and advised him that he was under arrest he ran. Deputies chased Clark and were able to apprehend him shortly there afterwards. Deputies then had to struggle with Clark before being able to handcuff and place him in the patrol car.

Deputies arrested Roy Von Clark Jr., age-33, 7040 Main St. Houma, for theft over $500, extortion and resisting arrest. Clark was transported to the Terrebonne Parish Jail where he remains on a $100,000.00 bond.
