News Release

August 12, 2010

On August 12, 2010, Thursday afternoon at approximately 2:45 p.m. the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office received a 911 call in reference to two people; a male and a female, being found dead inside of a mobile home located at 4428 Grand Caillou Rd.

Deputies and detectives arrived on scene and made contact with the 15 year old daughter of the female. She informed detectives that she returned home from school and found her mother and her mother's boyfriend lying on the kitchen floor inside of their mobile home. The mother is identified as Shannon Vitrano, w/f, age-39, of 4428 Grand Caillou Rd. Houma. The male is identified as Bryan J. Scott, w/m age-41, of 4428 Grand Caillou Rd. Houma. The couple lived together at this residence along with Vitrano's 16 year old son and 15 year old daughter from a previous marriage.

Detectives made entry into the mobile home and located the couple on the kitchen floor; both with gunshot wounds to their heads. The investigation revealed that Scott shot and killed Vitrano before committing suicide. Detectives recovered the 12 gauge shotgun that was used in this murder suicide.

While on scene detectives obtained information that the couple was having problems and that Vitrano told someone that she was going to leave Scott on today.

Anyone with information concerning this investigation is asked to call the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office detective bureau, (985) 876-2500.
