Sheriffs elect 2010-2011 board at annual meeting

Plaquemines Parish Sheriff I.F. "Jiff" Hingle Jr. has been elected president of the Louisiana Sheriffs' Association for the 2010-2011 term, succeeding Sheriff Victor Jones, according to Hal Turner, Executive Director of the LSA. Sheriff Hingle will lead the Association's sixty-four chief law enforcement officers and 14,000 deputies. The newly elected president's tenure will take effect on September 1, 2010.

Sheriff Hingle's election and installation, along with that of the Association's Executive Board and Committee, occurred this past week during the LSA's Annual Sheriffs' and Wardens' Training Conference. Attorney General Buddy Caldwell presided over the installation ceremonies along with keynote speaker, Jonathan Ringo, Special Assistant to Governor Bobby Jindal on Intergovernmental Affairs. The four day conference consisted of business meetings, legislative updates and training sessions.

Sheriff Hingle and the Association's newly elected officers and board members will serve until September 2011 and they include:
