A Houma man was arrested Friday in connection with cashing a series of stolen checks, Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said.

Earl St. Romain, 47, of 1304 Maxine Street in Houma, was arrested and charged with four felony counts of theft (more than $500.00) and one count of theft (less than $500.00) after an investigation revealed that he cashed checks stolen from a local business.

In late 2010, a set of checks was reported stolen from Sound Stage in Houma. The checks were reportedly recently cashed by St. Romain at several local businesses. The checks totaled $2500.00.

St. Romain remains at the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex.
