News Release

March 9, 2011

A Houma man was arrested Wednesday evening in Zachary for the murder of his wife, Sheriff Vernon Bourgeois said.

Stanley Guidroz, 52, of 2621 Madge Street in east Houma, turned himself into officers at the Zachary Police Department at noon Wednesday reporting that he murdered his wife earlier that morning in Houma. Stanley further directed Zachary Police Department officers to his vehicle in the parking lot of their headquarters building where he had placed his wife's body in the backseat of their 1999 Ford Mustang.

The victim was identified as Pepetra Guidroz, 47 of the same address. It appears that Pepetra died as a result of several stab wounds. An autopsy will be performed later this week.

Zachary Police contacted TPSO detectives after Stanley reported murdering Pepetra in their vehicle on the roadway behind Burger King on West Tunnel Blvd in west Houma. TPSO detectives responded to Zachary where Stanley was questioned and subsequently arrested. Stanley cooperated with the TPSO detectives and reported that moments prior to the stabbing, he and his wife were arguing about their relationship.

Stanley was transported to the Terrebonne Parish Criminal Justice Complex where he was held without bond for second degree murder.
