News Release

August 31, 2010

On August 30, 2010, Monday night at approximately 8:12 p.m. Terrebonne Parish deputies and the Houma Police patrolmen responded to an airplane crash on East Woodlawn Ranch Rd. Houma, La.

Deputies arrived at this location and located the pilot and the passenger. They had already exited the airplane that came to rest on its roof. The pilot is identified as Jake Wunstell age 23 of Houma and the passenger is James Cloutier, age-53, of Morgan City is also the owner. The airplane is registered to Non Destructive Visual Inspection which is a company located in Morgan City.

Wunstell received facial injuries from the crash and there were no reported injuries for Cloutier. Acadian Ambulance transported Wunstell to Terrebonne General Hospital to receive further treatment for his injuries.

Deputies received information that they left from New Mexico and flew in to San Angelo Texas before flying to Houma. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) will further investigate this crash in order to determine the cause.
